Riviera 645 SUV

Pairing bluewater pedigree with single-level living, Riviera's new 645 SUV offers extensive accommodations, premium comfort and long-range offshore cruising capability with a focus on indoor-outdoor entertaining. "The wonderful versatility of the SUV design lends itself perfectly to a larger yacht. The 645 takes our SUV to a new level with even more space, performance, cruising range, accommodation and luxury." —Riviera shipyard owner Rodney Longhurst tinyurl.com/2ad3hbr

North Pacific 44 Sedan Wide-Body

The NP44 Sedan wide-body option adds 18 inches to the salon by eliminating the portside walkaround deck. Large windows throughout the salon offer a 360-degree view and a feeling of spaciousness. An integrated FRP staircase from the cockpit to the flybridge is also new. tinyurl.com/2t4s7wpc

Outer Reef 740 Deluxbridge

Outer Reef Yachts' latest 740 Deluxbridge (sky lounge) model arrives with some nifty new bells and whistles. They include the largest "sports swim platform" ever offered on the model, providing substantial space for water activities from scuba diving to fishing. The upper helm and sky lounge are climate-controlled for comfortable long-range cruising through the islands. tinyurl.com/y6hj57mz

Nordhavn 80

A change in mood from previous models is tangible around the Nordhavn 80. According to the shipyard, Chief of Design Jeff Leishman deliberately injected a modern sensibility into the latest collection of designs, informing a departure in exterior styling, interior detailing and onboard conveniences starting with the N80. tinyurl.com/j3fz2u6t
